

Earth Day 2009

Phinney Center Gallery: Call to Artists

The Phinney Center Gallery, located in the historic Phinney Neighborhood Center, is currently accepting submissions by visual artists for a show within the theme of Earth Day, to be shown for the month of April, 2009. Work in all mediums by individual artists will be considered for inclusion in this environmentally themed juried group show.

Artwork submitted should reflect the theme of Earth Day including but not limited to: environmental issues, celebration of the earth and ecosystems, species diversity, extinction, ecology of the Pacific Northwest, and other relevant themes.

Submission deadline is Monday January 12th, 2009 (not a postmark deadline)

Earth Day 2009 artworks will be juried by PNA Arts Committee

Artist notification: February 2009

Show Opening Date: Friday, April 3rd 2009

Application Process:

All work should be submitted by mail or in person to the address listed below. Email submissions will not be considered, nor will incomplete submissions. Application materials will not be returned unless you include a SASE with adequate postage. The Phinney Center Gallery is not responsible for lost or damaged application materials.

Priority consideration for inclusion in the Earth Day exhibition will go to artists working in the Puget Sound area.

Please submit the following application materials for consideration:

- Resume: Include education and arts training, exhibition history, awards received (if applicable), and current contact information (mail, email, phone)
- Artist's statement: describe the concepts or intent of the work you are submitting. Please limit your description to one page.
- Work Samples: please submit no more than 5 examples of your work. Work will be accepted in a CD format only; please save your images as jpg files to ensure readability. Title each image to match the title information on your list of works.
- List of works: Provide a separate list of the work you are submitting. Include your name, title, medium, and dimensions.
